	The substance misuse service provides the key focus for drug and alcohol treatment services throughout the Southern Isles and is the first point for all referrals in the Uists and Barra. The service provides drug (and alcohol) counselling, support and aftercare arrangement for people with substance misuse problems and their carers. It also provides a treatment and rehabilitation programme for clients leaving prison. In addition to the programmes already mentioned, the service's Get Together Group offers support and information to people with substance use problems who are isolated. Supported accommodation can be provided during detoxification for up to 12 months.
